Purpose

Who are we?

Shaw Trust is a charity helping to transform the lives of young people and adults across the UK and internationally.

Our specialist services help people gain an education, enter work, develop their career, improve their wellbeing or rebuild their lives. As a charity we add value to every service we deliver by investing back into the people and communities we support.

Shaw Trust is one of the largest 25 charities in the UK. Comprising Shaw Trust, Prospects, Ixion and Shaw Education Trust, we use our 75 years' combined experience to support people to develop their potential. By joining together we are working to reach one goal: to help transform the lives of one million young people and adults each year by 2022.

Working with us gives you far more benefits than a standard package; it gives you the chance to help turn someone's life around.

What we need?

You're the person who can enable people to take control of their health and wellbeing through increasing confidence and community inclusion. Our Community Connectors understand their communities and the wide range of activities / services available within them. They are passionate about effective signposting, able communicators and focused on using their experience to connect people with the activities in their own communities.

Working daily with participants, health professionals, and community organisations Community Connectors are focused on making sure a person's journey to better health, wellbeing and inclusion is as easy as possible. They signpost to existing activities, help to develop new local provision specifically targeted to reducing social isolation and loneliness. You will make sure we can evidence the outcomes of the service – this job that makes a real difference in the lives of people.

This role is perfect for individuals with experience of working within a community and or wellbeing setting. The successful candidate will have a solution focussed approach, be highly organised and be able to deliver to agreed service specifications and outcomes.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

1. To take and manage referrals from GP, VCSE, health and social care and prospective participants.
- 2.
3. To undertake a discovery session with participants face to face to explore their aspirations with respect to community engagement / connectivity. This forms a personal centred conversation about what matters to the person.
- 4.
5. Signpost to community assets, which will support the individual in their achievement of wellbeing goals including health behaviour; sports and leisure; arts and culture, statutory agencies and to monitor positive engagement.
6. Ensure an on-going focus on prevention of poor wellbeing through Making Every Contact Count (MECC) linking with public health prevention activity.
7. Be fully responsible for all tasks related to the allocated participant journey including maintaining effective and efficient administrative procedures producing appropriate records and reports, including the updating of participants details on the share point system.
