

Job Description

Job Title: Community Link Worker

Reports to: Senior Link Worker

Location: Swale (Kent)

Purpose

Shaw Trust is a progressive charity on an exciting journey to help five times more people over the next five years. For over 30 years we have supported disabled and disadvantaged people to make positive changes to their lives through training and employment, and our ambitious plans need the right people to help us transform many more lives, in many more ways.

What we do is exciting, fulfilling and diverse and it's about to get even better. As well as employment services, we work with kids in schools, help offenders in prisons, and empower people to take part in activities that many of us would take for granted.

Shaw Trust manages the community mental health and wellbeing services (Live Well Kent and Medway) in 2 localities – the service is focussed on supporting people to recover and stay well. It provides person centred support aimed at delivering wellbeing improvements and community connectedness through a holistic approach underpinned by the 6 Ways to Wellbeing.

Working with us gives you far more benefits than a standard package; it gives you the chance to help turn someone's life around.

What we need?

Issues related to an individuals housing or living circumstances can have a major impact on their Mental Health and wellbeing and we are therefore recruiting Community Link workers who will specifically focus on working alongside District and Borough housing teams. Our Link Workers understand their communities and the wide range of services available within them. They are passionate about getting it right, able communicators and focused on using their experience to connect people with the help they need in their own communities.

Working with clients, district & borough councils, housing associations, health professionals, volunteers and service providers, Link Workers are focused on making sure a person's journey to better living circumstances and wellbeing is as easy as possible. Brokering existing service and helping to develop new local provision, liaising with primary and secondary health care professionals, checking in on progress and making sure we can evidence the outcomes of the service are all important facets of the job – a job that makes a real difference in the lives of people.

This role is perfect for individuals with experience of working within a community mental health/wellbeing setting using a caseload management approach. The successful candidate will have a solution focussed approach, highly organised, able to deliver to agreed service specifications/Outcomes and be willing to work and colocate within local kent district and borough councils.
