

Job: Partnerships Manager – regions and countries

Location: Various

Salary Range: £35,350 - £40,400

Who are we?

The Disabled Living Foundation (DLF) is the leading provider of impartial advice, information and training on equipment for independent living in the UK. By providing information at the right time we help people deal with the impact of becoming disabled or getting older, enabling them to maintain choice, independence and control over their home lives. The DLF works as one of a range of charitable enterprises within the Shaw Trust. Our target is to reach 5 million people by 2022.

Shaw Trust is a progressive charity on an exciting journey to help five times more people over the next five years. For over 30 years we have supported disabled and disadvantaged people to make positive changes to their lives through training and employment, and our ambitious plans need the right people to help us transform many more lives, in many more ways.

What we need?

- Individuals who can represent DLF in their home region or country combining our challenges of income and reach.
- Able to engage with a range of senior decision-makers across public, private and third sector organisations (health, social care and housing).
- Initiators and disrupters who can raise the profile of DLF 's services enabling us to reach older and disabled people, their carers and the professionals that support them.
- Specialists who can engage in strategic dialogue designed to provoke change enabled by incorporation of DLF's services.
- Are you right for the job?
- Are you ready for a challenge, knowledgeable about the issues and policies affecting the ageing and disabled population around living independently?
- Are you conversant with the health, housing and social care sectors?
- Are you looking for an opportunity to make a difference?
- Can you organise your time to focus on the right opportunities?

- Are you an experienced communicator?
- Are you familiar with the essentials of websites and digital technology?
