

Job Description

Job Title: Employment Retention Adviser

Reports to: Senior Employment Retention Adviser

Grade Band: E

Location: Home-based/Bury St Edmunds/Ipswich

Purpose

Shaw Trust's Retention Services sit within our Community Health & Wellbeing division and is a growing part of the business and our wider employment support offer to our beneficiaries.

We work in partnership with mental health clinical teams, GP practices and other referral partners who refer clients that are currently in employment but are experiencing difficulties in the workplace and require assistance to help them return to work, remain in work, or find new employment.

This is an EAs in Talking Therapies role, which is a national initiative offering patients with low mood, anxiety and depression, a combined package of therapeutic and employment support. We deliver an EAs in Talking Therapies service in partnership with the Wellbeing Talking Therapies service, which is part of Norfolk and Suffolk Foundation Trust. There are two sites in the Suffolk region located in Bury St Edmunds and Ipswich. In line with the EAs in Talking Therapies model, we offer employment support and are embedded within the Suffolk Wellbeing service, who provide the clinical aspect of support. This post is predominantly home based but there will be the need for travel within Suffolk for client facing appointments, presentations, or staff wellbeing away days on occasion.

We need an Employment Retention Adviser to provide highly effective support to individuals to guide them on their journey to returning, remain or find new employment while also supporting them to improve their health and wellbeing.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

1. Manage a diverse caseload of clients providing information, advice and guidance to support clients to address problems in the workplace to help them return to work, remain in work or find new employment.
2. Deliver a role with a dual responsibility to clinical partners/therapeutic services and Shaw Trust while complying with Shaw Trust's internal procedures and all relationships both internally and externally.

3. Meet and support clients to understand the barriers they are facing, their aspirations and goals by assessing their needs and working with them to formulate an Action Plan that will help to accomplish their objectives.
4. Assess programme participants' wider needs related to work which may include directing them towards benefits/welfare advice, mental/physical health with an onward referral partner.
5. Where applicable, advocate for clients with their employer to address problems and find solutions to complex workplace matters to increase the likelihood of clients remaining in work.
6. Conduct holistic Health and Work Assessments with programme participants providing wellbeing advice and the promotion of healthy lifestyle changes.
7. Provide employment coaching, including careers guidance, CV building, interview technique and job brokerage.
8. Provide information to clients on common employment law topics and stay up to date on important legal developments and changes.
9. Review, analyse and interpret contracts of employment, organisational policies/procedures, report and other documentation for the accurate provision of information, advice and guidance to clients.
10. Demonstrate a sound understanding of the factors required to facilitate and enable an individual's return to work as well as the issues that a person can face on returning to work and the skills needed to manage the return to work.
11. Awareness of the secondary effects on the individual including mental health, impact on confidence and steps to mitigate against a further absence from work.
12. Knowledge that many individuals with mental health conditions may also have primary or secondary health conditions and disabilities and a thorough understanding of the implications of these conditions in the workplace.
13. Proactively promote the service, deliver presentations and training as required.
14. Meet referral and performance targets in line with the specific KPI / SLA requirements of the service.

15. Signpost clients to referral partners by building and maintaining a network of onward referral partners who offer other forms of support.
16. Maintain accurate and compliant electronic client records.
17. Source job opportunities for clients through tailored job search and regular contact with local employers to explore hidden as well as advertised employment opportunities.
18. Provide education and support to employers, as agreed with the individual, which may include negotiating adjustments, return to work strategy and on-going contact with the employer to ensure job retention.
19. Upon returning to employment or securing new employment, continue to maintain the relationship with programme participants through regular reviews, visits, monitoring and other in-work support to help sustain employment.

Relationship Management

1. Partnership working with commissioning organisations including attending team/network meetings, 1-2-1s and training.
2. Build and maintain strong relationships with a range of referral partners including social prescribers, MH clinical teams, GPs and other community providers to grow referrals and opportunities for the development of the service (promoting employment as a positive intervention in the recovery journey).
3. Attend regular partner/clinical or other team meetings as an embedded employment retention adviser.
4. Establish positive and integrated relationships with clinical teams, employers and other service providers. This includes:
5. Developing relationships with employers to form partnership working approaches to employees with physical or mental health needs in the workplace.
6. Drive the integration of mental health treatment and employment support by establishing strong relationships with IAPT/clinical teams/other health and social care services delivering a joined-up partnership approach that addresses health and work-related issues in parallel.
7. Working with employers to promote the service, identify job opportunities and ensure appropriate strategies are in place to reduce barriers in the workplace.
8. Develop and maintain relationships/links with a range of external agencies that help individuals to achieve employment goals. This may include local colleges and training providers.

Stakeholders

Team Leader, Service Managers, HR, Occupational Health, Clinical Teams, User Groups, Voluntary Sector and Trust Training and Supported Employment Schemes, Local Colleges, Local Employment Service Disability Service Teams, Local Employers and other NHS User Employment Scheme, trade unions, Employee Voice.

Other

1. To undertake any further training as identified in the Shaw Trust review procedures.
2. Ensure that safe working practices are followed in respect of COSHH and other Risk Assessment control measures.
3. Employees must comply with the provisions of 'The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974' and must take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions whilst at work. Employees are also required to co-operate with their employer to enable them to perform or comply with any statutory provisions. The Trust's efforts to promote a safe and healthy working environment can only succeed with the full co-operation of its employees.
4. To understand, comply with and promote Shaw Trust's safeguarding policy and procedures. It is the responsibility of all employees to make the working environment safe and secure for all. Everyone must adhere to the 5 Rs in relation to possible abuse: Recognition, Response, Reporting, Recording and Referral. The Trust can only ensure its dedication to the protection of vulnerable people with the full cooperation of its employees.
5. The Trust has a Diversity and Inclusion Policy and it is the responsibility of all staff to comply with this. The key responsibilities for staff under this Policy are set out in the Trust Code of Conduct.
6. To maintain the confidentiality about clients, staff and other Trust business. The work is of a confidential nature and information gained must not be communicated to other persons except in the recognised course of duty. The post holder must meet the requirements of the Data Protection Act 2018 and GDPR at all times.
7. To maintain awareness of risk and to take personal responsibility for ensuring that the Trust is not unnecessarily exposed to risk. To report any issues or concerns relating to risk and the effectiveness of the Trust's risk management arrangements.
8. Be aware of, promote and implement Shaw Trust's Risk, Quality and Information Security Management Systems.
9. To report to line manager, or other appropriate person, in the event of awareness of bad practice.

10. Recycle and manage energy within your environment in line with Shaw Trust's Strategic aim to adopt green approaches and become carbon neutral.

This job description is intended to provide a broad outline of the main duties and responsibilities only. The post holder will need to be flexible in developing the role in conjunction with the line manager. The post holder may be asked to carry out any other delegated duty or task that is in line with their post.
